

Ligonier Valley Library Children's Department Fall Activities 2011

Stage Right!
Saturday, October 22
10:30 a.m. FREE

Stage Right! returns to the library with its version of Kate DiCamillo's book, Bink and Gollie. Bink and Gollie are two precocious little girls - one tiny, one tall. They share three comical adventures involving painfully bright socks, an impromptu trek to the Andes and a most unlikely companion. No matter where their roller skates take them, at the end of the day they will always be the very best of friends. A great program for the entire family.

Mom and Me Tea Saturday, November 19 at 2:00 p.m.

The annual Mom and Me Tea is a traditional tea party for moms (and grandmoms and aunts) and their children (boys and girls) age five to twelve.

Dressing up is encouraged!

Everyone will learn the basics of a traditional formal tea and why manners are important. The menu will include tea, punch, finger sandwiches, scones and sweets. Don't forget to bring your own special teacup. Those attending will be invited to share stories about their teacups. Each Mom and Me participant will have a formal photo taken as a keepsake for the event.

Preschool Storyhour

Each class is designed to promote the wonderful world of books through the use of stories, songs, fingerplays and games. Stretching exercises are done halfway through each class and a simple craft project is completed each week for the child to take home.
